

Av-DEC Wins a GA-ASI 2018 Supplier of the Year Award

From GA-ASI – Manufacturer of the Predator and other Remotely Piloted Aircraft

FORT WORTH, Texas – 30 April 2019 – General Atomics Aeronautical Systems, Inc. (GA-ASI) is the world leader in military and civilian UAV's. GA-ASI has just recognized Av-DEC with one of its 2018 Supplier of the Year awards.

Av-DEC prides itself on being a problem solving company for its customers. The #1 item assigned to every customer's problem list is customer service. Excellent customer service is the key to addressing all customers' needs. That is what makes this award a cherished recognition of performance.

Av-DEC is in the top 1% of GA-ASI suppliers and in this recognition GA-ASI praises Av-DEC for "excellence in supplier performance demonstrated by both employees and suppliers, who contributed to [our] overall performance".

This award recognizes the stellar history in On-time Delivery and Customer Satisfaction between August 2017 and August 2018. During this period the Av-DEC Quality Assurance Department performance statistics show our people exceeded their target average of 98% in both of these categories. Company performance continuously shows similar results in the other categories we track.

It is with that great pride Av-DEC accepts and announces this award. It is a milestone on our journey to achieving 100% customer satisfaction in all categories from all customers.
